minimum payment will be applied first to the balances with the highest interest rate, if applicable. Interest paid or agreed to be paid shall not exceed the maximum amount permissible under applicable law, and in any contingency whatsoever, if we shall receive anything of value deemed interest under applicable law which would exceed the maximum amount of interest permissible under applicable law, the excessive interest shall be applied to the reduction of the unpaid principal amount or refunded to you.

11) Default. You will be in default: (1) if you fail to make any payment on time; (2) if you fail to keep any promises you have made under this or any other Agreement with the Credit Union; (3) if you become insolvent or are the subject of an order for relief under Title 11 of the U.S. Code (Bankruptcy); (4) if anyone tries, by legal process, to take any of your money in the Credit Union; (5) if you have given the Credit Union false or inaccurate information in obtaining your Card; or (6) if anything happens which the Credit Union reasonably believes endangers your ability to repay what you owe.

12) Acceleration. If you are in default, the Credit Union may, without prior notice to you, call any amounts you still owe immediately due and payable plus INTEREST CHARGES, which shall continue to accrue until the entire amount is paid. You expressly waive any right to notice or demand, including but not limited to, demand upon default, notice of intention to accelerate, and notice of acceleration. The Card remains the property of the Credit Union at all times, and you agree to immediately surrender the Card upon demand of the Credit Union.

13) Additional Benefits/Card Enhancements. The Credit Union may from time to time offer additional services to your account at no additional cost to you. You understand that the Credit Union is not obligated to offer such services and may withdraw or change them at any time.

14) Convenience Checks. The Credit Union may, at its discretion, issue checks to you which may be used for any purpose other than making a payment for credit to your account. By signing such check, you authorize the Credit Union to pay the item for the amount indicated and post such amount as a cash advance to your account. The Credit Union does not have to pay any item, which would cause the outstanding balance in your account to exceed your credit limit. Any fees we may charge in connection with the use of convenience checks are set forth in the Account Opening Disclosure.

15) Continuation of Credit. The Credit Union may from time to time request personal information from you for the purpose of updating your credit status, according to normal credit procedures. Your failure to provide such information when requested by the Credit Union may result in suspension of your line of credit privileges under this Agreement, including your ability to obtain any future advances by any means.

16) Currency Conversion. If you effect an international transaction with your VISA Card, the rate of exchange between the transaction currency and the billing currency used for processing the international transaction will be a rate selected by VISA from the range of rates available in wholesale currency markets for the applicable central processing date, which rate may vary from the rate VISA itself receives or the government-mandated rate in effect for the applicable central processing date; and in each instance, plus up to a 1% Foreign Transaction Fee. The Foreign Transaction Fee will apply to all international purchase, cash disbursement, and account credit transactions even if there is no currency conversion. There is no grace period within which to repay international transactions in order to avoid the Foreign Transaction Fee.

17) VISA Emergency Services. You acknowledge that we may provide personal data concerning you to VISA U.S.A., its Members, or their respective contractors for the purpose of providing you with VISA Emergency Cash and Emergency Card Replacement Services, and you consent to the release of your information for these purposes.

18) Termination or Changes. The Credit Union may terminate this Agreement at any time subject to such notice as may be required by applicable law. You may terminate this Agreement, by written notice, as to future advances at any time. Termination by either party shall not affect your obligation to repay any payments made for your account resulting from use of the Card as well as INTEREST CHARGES and other related charges. The Credit Union may add to, change, or delete the terms of this Agreement, including the method of calculating the periodic rate, at any time subject to such notice as may be required by applicable law. If you use your Card or account to make a purchase or cash advance after having been given notice of a change in terms, you agree that the existing balance in your account at the time of that use will be subject to the new terms, as shall subsequent uses, to the extent permitted by law.

19) Credit Information. You authorize the Credit Union to investigate your credit standing and employment history when opening or reviewing your account. You authorize the Credit Union to disclose information regarding your account to credit bureaus and creditors who inquire about your credit standing.

20) Notification Address for Information Reported to Consumer Reporting Agencies. We may report the status and payment history of your account to credit reporting agencies each month. If you believe that the information we have reported is inaccurate or incomplete, please notify us in writing at First Central Credit Union, P. O. Box 21809, Waco, TX 76702-1809. Please include your name, address, home telephone number and account number, and identify the information you believe is incorrect. If your notification relates to an incident of identity theft, we will require a copy of your identity theft report filed with law enforcement authorities.

21) Statements and Notices. Statements and notices will be mailed to you at the most recent address you have given the Credit Union. You agree to give us prompt notice of any change in your name, mailing address, telephone number or place of employment.

22) Copy Received. By using the Card or the account, you agree to all the terms and conditions and promise to perform all the obligations, requirements, and duties contained in this Agreement, and if you signed the Credit Card Application, you acknowledge that you have received a copy of this Agreement.

23) Additional Provisions. Each provision of this Agreement must be considered as part of the total Agreement and cannot, in any way, be severed from it. However, you also agree that should any part of the Agreement be found invalid, it will in no way affect the remainder of the Agreement. You understand the validity, construction, and enforcement of this Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Texas and federal law. Use of your Card is also subject to the policies and rules of VISA International, as applicable and in effect from time to time, which do not conflict with the terms of this Agreement. The Credit Union does not warrant any merchandise or services purchased by you with the Card. All purchases and cash advances are extended at the option of the merchant or cash advancing financial institution and the Credit Union is not responsible for refusal of any merchant or financial institution to honor your Card. We can accept late payments or partial payments or checks or money orders marked "payment in full" without losing any of our rights under this Agreement. We can also delay enforcing any of our rights under this Agreement without losing them.

YOUR BILLING RIGHTS: KEEP THIS DOCUMENT FOR FUTURE USE

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What to Do if You Find a Mistake on Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

First Central Credit Union
Attn: Credit Card Department
P.O. Box 21809
Waco, Texas 76702-1809

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your statement, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe your statement is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After we finish our investigation, one of two things will happen:

- If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.
- If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your statement is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your statement. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us.

If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

Your Rights if You are Dissatisfied with Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase. To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase. If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

First Central Credit Union
Attn: Credit Card Department
P.O. Box 21809
Waco, Texas 76702-1809

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
